STAMP DUTIES.

The following is a list of Stamp Duties, according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licences are also given.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Stamps to be on the face of the instrument.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to distinct matters to be stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, to be charged in respect of it also.—§ 4 (b).

Facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty to be truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May 1888, and every arrangement for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange, or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument to which a stamp is appropriated is not duly stamped except with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

Duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

For the purposes of the Act, the expression 'bill of exchange' includes draft, order, cheque, and letter of credit, and any document or writing (except a bank note) entitling or purporting to entitle any person, whether named therein or not, to payment by any other person or, or to draw upon any other person for, any sum of money; and the expression bill of exchange payable on demand includes:

comes into the hands of any bona fide holder there is affixed thereto an adhesive stamp effectually cancelled, the stamp shall, so far as relates to the holder, be deemed to be duly cancelled, although it may not appear to have been affixed or cancelled by the proper person.

(b.) If at the time when any such bill or note comes into the hands of any bona fide holder there is affixed thereto an adhesive stamp not duly cancelled, it shall be competent for the holder to cancel the stamp as if he were the person by whom it was affixed, and upon his so doing the bill or note shall be deemed duly stamped, and as valid and available as if the stamp had been cancelled by the person by whom it was affixed.

Not to relieve any other person.—(3.) But neither of the foregoing provisos is to relieve any person from any fine or penalty incurred by him for not cancelling an adhesive stamp.

Proviso as to the fixed duty.—(2.) Provided that if any such bill of exchange, payable on demand, or at sight, or on presentation, is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is so presented may affix thereto an adhesive stamp of one penny, and cancel the same as if he had been the drawer of the bill, and may thereupon pay the sum in the bill mentioned, and charge the duty in account against the person by whom the bill was drawn, or deduct the duty from the said sum, and the bill is, so far as respects the duty, to be deemed valid and available.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 12. When any person is possessed of a stamp which has not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the commissioners may, if they think fit, repay to him the value of the stamp in money, deducting the proper discount, upon his delivering up the stamp to be cancelled, and proving to their satisfaction that it was purchased by him at the chief office or at one of the head offices, or from some person duly appointed to sell and distribute stamps, or duly licensed to deal in stamps, within the period of two years next preceding the application, and with a bona fide intention to use it.

Estate duty is not payable on the deceased's death in respect of moveable property settled by a will or disposition made by a person dying before the 2nd August 1894, in respect of which property, inventory, or account duty has been paid, or is payable, unless in either case deceased, at the time of his death, or at any time since the will or disposition took effect, had been competent to dispose of the property.

Secs. 14 and 15 of the Finance Act, 1896 (59 and 60 Vict. c. 28), exempts from duty property simply reverting to a donor after life interests created by him; also where a husband is entitled by law to the rents of his wife's real property, and he dies in her lifetime, such property is not to be deemed to pass on his death, by reason of the rents reverting to the wife.

Property to be aggregated, and duty thereon levied not more than once on the same death. Provided that property in which deceased never had an interest, or which, under a disposition not made by him, passes immediately on his death to some person

SETTLED PROPERTY—SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY.

Where property liable to duty is settled by will of deceased, or having been settled by some other disposition, passes under it on death of deceased to some person not competent to dispose thereof, a further duty, called settlement estate duty, is payable on the principal value, except where the only life interest in such property after deceased's death is that of the husband or wife of deceased, or where the disposition took effect before 2nd August 1894. Property in which wife or husband of deceased takes an estate of terce or courtesy, or other like estate, is to be treated as property settled by will of deceased.

Provided—(a.) Estate duty and settlement estate duty are not payable twice under the same settlement, unless deceased at his death was, or at any time during continuance of settlement had been, competent to dispose of the property;

(b.) Where the interest of any person under the settlement fails or determines by reason of his death before it becomes an interest in possession, and subsequent limitations under the settlement continue to subsist, the property is not deemed to pass on his death;

(d.) Settlement estate duty not payable where lands or chattels are so settled by Act of Parliament or royal grant that no one of persons entitled in succession can alienate the same;

PERSONS LIABLE—HOW PAYABLE.

Executor or Intromitter—Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with, or enters upon the possession or management of, any personal property wheresoever situate, of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay the duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in the proper Sheriff Court, within six months of the death, an inventory (or additional or corrective inventory) of deceased's estate, and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, which, by virtue of any testamentary disposition of the deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon, and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Other persons liable.—Where executor not liable for duty, every person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also, to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, every trustee, tutor, curator, judicial factor, or other person in whom any interest in the property, or the management thereof, is at any time vested, and every person, in whom the same is vested in possession by alienation or other derivative title, is liable therefor, excepting one who acts merely as agent for another in the management.

VALUE—DEDUCTIONS—REPAYMENT.

The principal value of property is the price which, in the opinion of the commissioners, it would fetch if sold in the open market at the time of deceased's death. The value is to be ascertained by the commissioners in such manner, and by such means, as they think fit.

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.—Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses, and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage) incurred or created by the deceased bonâ fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use or benefit, and taking effect out of his interest.

No allowance can be made for any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person, unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained.

WHEN DUE—ADDITIONAL DUTY—INTEREST.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on an inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof, or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance, calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear, unless a certificate of discharge delivered.

Heritable estate.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 3 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Interest.—Interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum is payable on estate duty from the date when the duty is due, or if the duty is payable by instalments from the date when the first instalment is due.

Small estates.—Interest is not charged on fixed duties of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months of death.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

COMPOSITION FOR 'DEATH DUTIES.'

Where from number of deaths on which property passed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (estate, inventory, temporary estate, legacy, and succession duties), or to do so without undue expense, commissioners on application, and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the value of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

FORM OF INVENTORY, ETC.—PENALTIES.

Executor, or other accountable person, failing to render all appropriate accounts and statements, renders himself liable to a penalty of £100, or a sum equal to double the duty unpaid for which he is accountable, according as commissioners elect, with power to commissioners to reduce penalty.

Forms.—All inventories, accounts, certificates, statements, etc., to be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed, and, if so required by commissioners, shall be in duplicate, and accounts and statements shall be delivered and verified on oath and by production of books. Any person wilfully failing to comply with this enactment to be liable to the penalty above.

Exemptions, etc.—A house or tenement is exempt when occupied solely for the purpose of trade or business, or of any profession or calling by which occupier seeks a livelihood or profit, and although a menial or domestic servant, or other person of a similar grade or description, not otherwise employed by the occupier, may dwell therein for the protection thereof.

Where house divided into and let in different tenements, relief to be granted in respect of tenement occupied as above, or unoccupied, on notice being given to Surveyor of Taxes. A house is also exempt, if used for the sole purpose of providing separate dwellings, where the annual value of each dwelling does not amount to £20, provided the district medical officer under the Public Health Act, or another medical practitioner appointed by the local authority, certifies that the house affords suitable accommodation for each of the families or persons inhabiting it, and satisfies sanitary requirements. Where the annual value of each dwelling amounts to £20 but does not exceed £40, assessment will be confined to annual value exclusive of dwellings of annual value below £20 each, and rate will be reduced to 3d.

SCHEDULE B.—(Occupancy of Real Property.) On each 20s. of one-third of the annual value of lands, tenements, and heritages (other than dwelling-houses distinct from farms, and buildings occupied for trades or professions), in respect of the occupancy, 1s.

SCHEDULE C.—(Public Funds.) On each 20s. of annual amount of profits from interest, annuities, dividends, and shares of annuities, payable out of any public revenue, 1s.

SCHEDULE D.—(Trades and Professions.) On each 20s. of annual amount of gains, profits, or returns, from trades, professions, employments, or vocations, or from personal or other property not included in schedules A, B, C, or E, 1s.

SCHEDULE E.—(Public Salaries.) On each 20s. of annual amount of salaries, pensions, or annuities paid out of the public revenue and not charged under Schedule C, or for public offices or employments, 1s.

Exemption and Abatement.—Under the Finance Act of 1898, persons whose whole incomes from every source do not exceed £160 a year are exempted. Persons whose incomes exceed £160, but do not exceed £400, are entitled to an abatement equal to the duty upon £160; and persons whose total incomes exceed £400, but do not exceed £500, to an abatement equal to the duty on £150; and where the incomes exceed £500, but do not exceed £600, to an abatement equal to the duty on £120; and where the incomes exceed £600, but do not exceed £700, to an abatement equal to the duty on £70.

When the total joint income of a husband and wife does not exceed £700, and such total income includes profits of the husband and wife derived from any trade, profession, employment, or vocation carried on or exercised by the personal labours of each and separate and distinct from each other the profits derived from such trade or profession are to be treated separately for the purposes of exemption or abatement. (60 and 61 Vict. c. 24, § 5).

Deductions.—Deduction is allowed, when claimed, of any annual premium (not exceeding one-sixth part of the claimant's income from every source) paid for insurance, or deferred annuity, on the claimant's own or his wife's life, to any insurance company in existence on 1st November 1844, or registered pursuant to Act 7 and 8 Vict. c. 110; or of any annual payment made under Act of Parliament to a widow's or children's fund.

By 41 Vict. c. 15, § 12, provision is made for deduction for diminished value by wear and tear of machinery or plant used in any trade, manufacture, adventure, etc., the profits or gains of which are chargeable under the rules of schedule D.

By the Act 19 and 20 Vict. c. 80, landlords in Scotland are entitled to relief (either by abatement or by repayment) from any amount of income tax which may be assessed upon them in respect of the annual value of such rates, taxes, assessments, and public burdens, as may be charged upon them and not charged upon landlords in England.

In the case of an assessment on lands (inclusive of the farmhouse and farm buildings), under Sched. A, the assessment is to be reduced by one-eighth part; and in the case of houses or buildings distinct from farms, the assessment is to be reduced by one-sixth part, except where the tenant has undertaken to bear the cost of repairs. (57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, § 35.)

Occupiers of lands for the purposes of husbandry only are entitled, on proof to the satisfaction of the commissioners, to an abatement of duty proportionate to the deficiency of their profits or gains. (59 and 60 Vict. c. 28, § 27.)

Person sustaining loss in any trade or profession carried on by him, either solely or in partnership, or in farming of lands, may, on application to the commissioners through the district surveyor of taxes within six months after the year of assessment, obtain repayment of so much of the Income Tax actually paid on his aggregate income as represents the tax on income equal to his loss. (53 and 54 Vict. c. 8, § 23.)

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess SECURITY of a high character. The Funds are lent over HERITABLE PROPERTIES WITHIN SCOTLAND. The Loans are, on the average, moderate in amount, and in very many cases are repayable by instalments, so that the margin of security is being steadily increased.

In addition to these Investments, the Company's UNCALLED CAPITAL, amounting to £170,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors; while the RESERVE FUND, amounting to £25,000, which is separately invested in BANK OF ENGLAND STOCK, affords a still further substantial Security.

The Rate of INTEREST allowed on Deposits varies from 2 to  $3\frac{1}{2}$  per cent., according to the term for which the money is lodged.

BORROWERS will find the Company's arrangements simple and equitable. Parties are assisted in the Purchase of HOUSES or SHOPS for their own occupation, for which purpose the Company's system of accepting repayment by instalments is specially commended to Householders. The Rates for Instalment Loans have recently been reduced.

Borrowers do not, in virtue of obtaining Loans, become Members of the Company, and they incur none of the responsibilities of Shareholders. No Commission or Fines charged.

HOUSE OF MERCY, ST. CATHARINE'S CONVENT,
4 LAURISTON GARDENS,
EDINBURGH.

SPECIAL ATTENTION.—The Sisters of Mercy who conduct this LAUNDRY—opened Twenty-one Years ago, and now enjoying extensive patronage from Families resident in Edinburgh, Schools, and Hotels—olicit further Orders. Terms moderate. Printed Price List to be obtained by application to the REVEREND MOTHER SUPERIOR at above address.

---

The Van collects and returns Washings in all parts of the City and Suburbs.

The House of Mercy has been established to board, lodge, and train as domestic servants, girls who have no home or proper protection. Numbers of girls are being lost daily for want of those safeguards which a respectable home ensures, and which are so necessary for a girl in a city like Edinburgh. Those only who visit the very poorest and lowest localities can know the terrible dangers and temptations by which such girls are surrounded. It is idle to deplore the number of those who fall, and who, besides losing their own souls, bring many others to ruin, if strenuous efforts are not at the same time made to avert this evil. The SISTERS, therefore, confidently appeal to the charitable for assistance in a work which, they venture to think, can have no small claim on their sympathy and support.

Annual Subscriptions, however small, and Donations of Money, Food, or Clothes, will be thankfully acknowledged by the Reverend Mother Superior, who will be happy to show Visitors over the Laundry on Thursdays and Fridays.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

EARLY BONUS SCHEME (E.B.).

The following among other Special advantages apply to ordinary Policies issued under this Scheme. Besides being payable immediately on proof of death and title, they are, at the end of Three Years from their date, subject to the regulations in the Prospectus,

Entitled to rank for Bonus Additions;
Indisputable on the ground of Errors or Omissions;
World-Wide without Extra Charge; and

Liable only to Reduction in Amount on Non-Payment of the Premiums.

At the Division of Profits for the Five Years ending 31st December 1899, Ordinary Life Policies under this Scheme received a BONUS ADDITION of £1, 10s. per cent. for each year since they were entitled to rank.

SPECIAL BONUS SCHEME (D.B.).

Under this Scheme Profit Policies are issued at rates which do not exceed, and in many cases fall short of, the Non-Profit Rates of other Offices.

They share in the Profits when the Premiums received, accumulated at 4 per cent. compound interest, amount to the Sum Assured.

Policies issued at these very economical Rates practically receive a large Bonus at the outset.

At age 30, £1200 with right to Profits can be insured for the same Premium as would be charged for £1000 under the usual Profit Schemes of most Offices.

In 1899, Policies of this class, which ranked for Bonus for the first time, received additions at the rate of £10 per cent., together with a progressive addition of 10s. per cent. per annum, and Policies which had previously participated received further additions.
